SPANO & DAWICKI

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED ELDER LAW AND SPECIAL NEEDS FIRM FOR YOUR CLIENTS.

REFERRALS TO OUT-OF-STATE ELDER LAW, SPECIAL NEEDS AND LIFE CARE ATTORNEYS.

HISTORY OF ACHIEVEMENT Stephen Spano is a nationally recognized elder law and estate planning attorney and is one of only 462 Board Certified Elder Law Attorneys in the nation. He is past president of the National Elder Law Foundation, Life Care Planning Law Firms Association and the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys' Massachusetts Chapter, as well as one of the founders of the Massachusetts Guardianship Association. He is Martindale-Hubbell® AV-rated and an adjunct professor in the Estate Planning, Elder Law and Special Needs LL.M program at Western New England University School of Law. All the attorneys at the firm are members of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys and VA-accredited with the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs.

EXPERTISE Known for obtaining results, Spano & Dawicki brought the landmark case of Morrison, the first child-caregiver contract case to prevail in Massachusetts. The firm has a proven track record in handling complex issues, including MassHealth plans, applications and appeals. They offer unique solutions to assist clients and their families in maintaining independence and dignity in conjunction with comprehensive solutions to safeguard their assets. The firm is an excellent source for elder law, asset protection, special needs, estate planning, trust, guardianship, conservatorship, fiduciary representation/litigation and probate matters.

TRUSTING RELATIONSHIPS "We are a trusted source for your clients. We help them preserve their independence, family relationships, precious memories and assets," Spano says. Trust and expertise are the most important reasons a referral is made to Spano & Dawicki. The firm assists lawyers searching for an elder law attorney in other states by offering no-fee referrals.

Let them help you meet the growing needs of your clients, while safeguarding your position as their trusted adviser.
